FIRE BURNS ROOF FROM EAST PARIS RESIDENCE.

Fire which originated from a defective flue broke out in the residence of Mrs. John Sullivan, in East Paris yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. A high wind, which was blowing, for a time threatened adjoining property, but the fire department responded promptly and by efficient work confined the blaze to the rear of the residence where the fire started. The residence was damaged to the extent of about $300.

The fire department was called out Saturday morning to an alarm from Box 23. The blaze was discovered in a residence beyond the Georgetown bridge and out of the city limits. Little damage was done.

HOME COOKING.

Having retired from the restaurant business, Mrs. Crodale and myself have opened up a first-class private quarters on High street, four doors north of the electric traction station, which is most centrally located and convenient to the best business section of Paris and to the electric cars, which stop at our door. We are catering to table trade only, and on the American plan and are prepared to accommodate table borders regular or irregular, and also any transient trade, ladies or gentlemen. We also can entertain automobile parties and can serve special dinners or suppers for a number upon due notice, early or late. If you are particular and want superior, palatable home cooking, which you often dream about, but seldom realize, served in a refined and select manner, in corresponding and inviting apartments, we feel that you will certainly make no mistake in looking us up. We will issue meal tickets to persons averaging one and two meals per day.

Respectfully,
GEO. H. CRODALE.

Withdrawal of Kehoe Forecast

Conditions On Which He Predicted Candidacy Not Satisfied.

INSURRECTION NEAR END

No Enthusiasm Aroused and, After Hunt of Five Weeks, Ticket Still is Nineteen Men Short—Great Crowd Expected at Election in November—Management Regrets Postponement.

LEXINGTON, KY.—Students of the tobacco situation give grounds for the prediction that the withdrawal of James N. Kehoe as provisional candidate for president of the Burley Tobacco Company, and consequent collapse of the opposition movement, are to be incidents of the immediate future. More than a month ago Mr. Kehoe reluctantly agreed to accept the nomination for president of the Burley Tobacco Company if insurgent leaders should find twenty other men satisfactory to the stockholders of their counties to run for places as directors. Up to the present time only one man has announced, and Mr. Kehoe's refusal to be kept in suspense longer could be construed as justifiable.

Many believe that Mr. Kehoe was deceived as to the dimensions of the opposition movement and the popularity of the demand for a candidate. It is pointed out by friends of the organization that he cannot have overlooked the fact that his conditional candidacy has in five weeks been followed by no show of enthusiasm even in his own ranks; also that the rural press of the burley district, with the exception of several papers which have criticized it, has utterly ignored his announcement. Having been prominent in politics for many years and having been defeated more than once, the ex-congressman could be expected to "read signs" with accuracy.

Analysis of his first and only speech of the opposition campaign at Williamstown shows no bid for support beyond the ranks of a variable element who for first one reason and then another have waged guerilla warfare against the company for several years.

Exploded Charges Renewed.

"I felt interested enough to go forty miles to hear Jim's first and only speech," said J. F. ("Uncle Joe") Walton, of Fayette county, a former Mason county citizen and long a friend of Mr. Kehoe. "I have always liked him, and I gave him credit for having some sound reason to offer for taking up the cause of the complainers. After hearing his talk I came to the conclusion that he had not posted himself about the tobacco situation at all."

"Why, if he had kept up with events he would have known that every criticism he made had been exploded long ago, and those charges of mismanagement disproved. He ought to have known that two months ago in Kenton county Judge Harbeson heard all that buncomb and found only grounds to commend the management. I don't know what has got into Jim. He is a smart man and ought to be posted about such things, even if he doesn't know anything about the tobacco business."

Bar to Speculators.

"It was a pretty speech and he is a fine orator, but sakes alive, what a platform! No tobacco grower could be fooled about that decision of the court of Appeals. Every one of them who is not looking for a pretext on which to hang a grievance knows why the founders of the Burley Tobacco Company, advised by the best lawyers in the State, put a clause in the charter providing that poolers and not outsiders who might secure stock should vote. The only reason, maybe, why Mr. Kehoe was not one of those who wrote that in the charter, is because he quit before it was done. If that bar hadn't been put up speculators might have secured enough stock to have sold out the organization before this time. And that this organization is of benefit to the farmers and safe only so long as they themselves control it, is just as true today as it was then."

Real Hope of Competitors.

"A great many people seem to think that the trust would like to get hold of this business for what the company owns and to remove it as a competitor in the manufacture of tobacco. These considerations do not amount to a hill of beans when you look deeper into the matter. What makes every other manufacturing concern an enemy of the Burley Tobacco Company is that in the last five years this organization has made them pay for the tobacco they were compelled to have to run their factories over fifty million dollars more than they would have had to pay for the leaf if there had been no organization. In the next five years the growers will get another fifty millions more than they would have received when they were defenseless. This is reason enough for our competitors to devoutly hope for the disruption of the organization, and should be incentive enough to hold the growers in solid phalanx behind their business.

What Failure Would Mean.

The interests that have stirred trouble for the burley company do not want to buy it out necessarily. That would be a costly thing, even if speculators could secure control. What the trust hoped for was the destruction of the movement through a flood of suits aided by such internal discord as could be fomented. What competitors now hope for is that the organization will fall into hands that would make its failure certain. The only reason why those who are trying to get control of it now will not make a failure of running the business is that they will make a failure of the attempt to get control. That crowd couldn't make a success of anything that involved the support of reasonable men. I don't believe Mr. Kehoe is going to allow them to write his name on their ticket. In fact, I do not believe that they will offer a ticket. Growers of tobacco do not care even to hear the personal grievances of those who have been fighting this organization, and they will not help self-seekers to grind their axes.

Ignorant of the Business.

"A striking contrast is presented when the men now in control of the burley company are compared with the group who are attacking them. Among the leaders of the so-called outfall there is not one who knows anything about the buying or selling or manufacture of tobacco. They are well up in politics, a surprising number of them are lawyers, several are doctors and a few are bankers. About the only men in the crowd who could claim to know anything about tobacco are some pinhookers and stock speculators."

"Pretty crowd this to put in charge of a business established by forty thousand growers, already the greatest independent farmers' concern in the world and destined in a few years to be the most powerful factor in the tobacco industry."

Group of Experts.

"Who are the men these agitators are criticizing? No lawyers or doctors or politicians or adventurers there. Every man of them is an expert, schooled in the tobacco business as grower, handler and marketer, with a successful factory already testifying to their ability. A set of men better equipped with practical knowledge and thorough experience can't be gotten together. They have been tried and proved. They do not have to be asked what they are going to do. They can point to what they have done. The men who ask to be put in may think that they will not have to show something they too have done, but every man who knows farmers knows also that not only will the seekers for office be put to the acid test but also their backers. Motives are being studied without passion, and I'd hate to be in a crowd that was under as wide suspicions as are these self-styled 'reorganizers' today."

Preparing for Election.

J. M. Rankin and W. T. Loomis have been busy with preparations for the election of officers of the Burley Tobacco Company which, as commissioners of the Kenton circuit court, they will conduct. Notices of the meeting of stockholders have appeared in the papers specified in Judge Tracy's order. Certificates of stock are being issued in exchange for warehouse receipts as fast as they can be made out. Transfers all will have been recorded by October 7, and stock will be voted by the person whom the stock ledger shows to have been the owner on that date. From most of the counties in the district committees will vote the stock in pools, but the stipulation of the court that the meeting shall take place in the company's great warehouse on South Broadway will encourage many to attend and vote their stock in person. It is probable, therefore, that the attendance at the meeting November 6 will be very large.

Regret Over Postponement.

While the management of the company feel certain that the postponement of the election a month by Judge Tracy will swell and solidify the ranks who will vote for the perpetuation of the organization, they regret exceedingly that the period in which hurtful agitation may be continued has been extended. Business suffers from unrest, and expansion and progress are handicapped. Various improvements in warehouse facilities and the addition of sale houses to handle this year's crop demand attention. The policy of the executive committee was to hand these matters over to the board to have been elected October 7, and they entered a vigorous protest against the change in date. It will now be necessary for the management to decide whether or not the interests of the business require that contracts for improvements shall be entered at once so that the enlarged facilities may be ready to handle this crop.

The Back Tax Suits.

Many stockholders will hope that among developments of the week may be a settlement of the forty-five back tax claims brought in the name of the state. The acceptance of the resignation of John Howard, revenue agent for the state at large, who brought the suits, and notification of Judge Louis Apperson, his attorney, that his services would not be required further, has put Auditor H. M. Bosworth in a position to consider any proposal for a settlement that may be made. These suits, in which almost a million dollars in taxes and $176,745.15 in fees were sought, have tied up over three hundred and fifty thousand dollars belonging to the growers. This can be distributed just as soon as a settlement is effected. In the trial of the first of the suits it was established that the Burley Tobacco Society, an organization without a cent of capital, was purely a selling agent, without authority to list the tobacco it handled or the proceeds; that it was the duty of growers to list their property and pay taxes in the county of their residence, and that as far as the evidence showed, all of the property in question had been assessed and the tax paid in the forty-five counties.

A Human Match Factory

The body contains phosphorus sufficient to make 433,000 matches. Phosphorus is one of fourteen elements composing the body—divided among bones, flesh, nervous system and other organs. The perfect health of body requires a perfect balance of the elements. These elements come from the food we eat—the stomach extracts and distributes them.

But if stomach is deranged—the balance of health is destroyed and the blood does not carry the proper elements to the different organs, and there is blood trouble—nerve trouble—heart trouble. Pain is the hungry cry of starved organs. Put the liver, stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition into a condition of health. That is just what is done by

"SATAN" IS COMING TO THE COLUMBIA NEXT THURSDAY

(From the Indianapolis Star.)

"People who like the best to be had in moving pictures were not disappointed in seeing the big feature production, 'Satan, or The Drama of Humanity,' at the Park Theatre this week. The picture is excellent in photographic art, with clearness of detail, a picturesque handling and grouping of characters, with a commendable dramatic illustration of the story, and so simple that a child can understand. Some might think by the title that the picture would be wearisome or gruesome, but it is not. It tells a story from the beginning of time up to the present day, showing the workings of the evil spirit in the people, and all who listen to his honeyed words and promise come to despair and destruction. Step by step the story winds its way from the time Satan did battle with God and was cast from Heaven through all ages up to our modern times. Mario, the gentleman who plays Satan, the leading part, wrote the scenario of the story and is the director of the company, and is most remarkable for a moving picture actor. His acting is perfect and interesting at all times, and one never becomes tired of his ever prominence in the picture. As spectacular, the picture is grand; as a story, it will hold your strict attention throughout, while many thrills and climaxes are in the play. It teaches a great lesson and a better sermon would be hard to find in moving pictures. The fourth act takes on the coloring of modern times of today. Satan prompts a wealthy iron master to steal the sweetheart of one of the workmen. This purling of Grace leads to the murder of the ironmaster and afterward a strike among his employees. A pursuit of the assassin, a bombardment of his stronghold, an explosion, and whole sale destruction, with the spirit of Satan fading into the ruins. Lighting a cigarette, he gloats over his evil work."

This great picture will be presented at the Columbia Theatre on next Thursday, Sept. 25. Admission, 10c and 20c. Never before shown at these prices.

Brookline, Mass., said to be the richest town in the world per capita, does not permit moving pictures. The children of wealthy parents must find other amusement. They know nothing of the delights of the "movies."

J. C. Ellis, of Clark county, one of the largest tobacco growers in the State, makes the following suggestion to the growers, which he claims will save them thousands of dollars. Mr. Ellis says instead of cutting the tobacco because the bottom leaves are firing that these leaves be pulled off and saved, thus allowing the top leaves to ripen fully before the cutting is done. Mr. Ellis has been over North and South Carolina and claims that it is a practice there that has never been used in Kentucky, and will save the growers here many dollars. He says the best time to gather these leaves is in the morning when the sun is low.

Children love this "fruit laxative," and nothing else cleanses the tender stomach, liver and bowels so nicely.

A child simply will not stop playing. To empty the bowels, and the result is they become tightly clogged with waste, the liver gets sluggish, stomach sour, then your little one becomes cross, half-sick, feverish, don't eat, sleep or act naturally, breath is bad, system is full of cold, has sore throat, stomach-ache or diarrhoea. Listen, Mother! See if tongue is coated then give a teaspoonful of "California Syrup of Figs," and in a few hours all the constipated waste, sour bile and undigested food passes out of the system, and you have a well, playful child again.

Millions of mothers give "California Syrup of Figs" because it is perfectly harmless; children love it, and it never fails to act on the stomach, liver, and bowels.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company." Refuse any other kind with contempt.

It Always Helps

says Mrs. Sylvania Woods, of Clifton Mills, Ky., in writing of her experience with Cardui, the woman's tonic. She says further: "Before I began to use Cardui, my back and head would hurt so bad, I thought the pain would kill me. I was hardly able to do any of my housework. After taking three bottles of Cardui, I began to feel like a new woman. I soon gained 35 pounds, and now, I do all my housework, as well as run a big water mill."

I wish every suffering woman would give

CARDUI

The Woman's Tonic

a trial. I still use Cardui when I feel a little bad, and it always does me good."

Headache, backache, side ache, nervousness, tired, worn-out feelings, etc., are sure signs of womanly trouble. Signs that you need Cardui, the woman's tonic. You cannot make a mistake in trying Cardui for your trouble. It has been helping weak, ailing women for more than fifty years.

MODEL ROAD MOVEMENT
STARTED IN NICHOLAS COUNTY

The movement at Carlisle for a model road from Millersburg to Sharpburg via Carlisle, is at a fever heat as the result of a letter received by Judge James Mitchell from Congressman Fields, which indicates that funds will probably be available for government aid of the enterprise. The letter from Congressman Fields states that the North Carolina fund will not be available for the Kentucky proposition, as the former State will use the appropriation, but that he finds that the department now has $4,200 available for road work, and that other sums will be coming into that fund by October 1 and it is believed that the Nicholas county people will have a good chance to secure their appropriation out of these funds. A mass meeting of the citizens was held in Carlisle Saturday afternoon, when definite plans were made and subscriptions taken for the local money for the building of the road.

Interest is so great that a number of large subscriptions have already been assured. It is said that the building of the model road from Mt. Sterling to Sharpburg, which is already assured, and this road from Sharpburg via Carlisle to Millersburg, will make one of the longest stretches of model road in the country, as the roads from Millersburg to Paris, Lexington, Versailles, Frankfort, Shelbyville and Louisville are now good.

$300,000 PLUM DANGLED
BEFORE SUN POLICYHOLDERS

Inspectors for the State Insurance Department will go to New York about the first of the year to get a list of policyholders in the old Sun Life Insurance Co., of Louisville, who are entitled to the paid-up value of their insurance, having paid the premiums for five years. This company was absorbed by the Metropolitan.

Several months ago Insurance Commissioner Clay undertook to secure such a list, and was enjoined by the company, which agreed to prepare a list and advertise it itself. Commissioner Clay desired to bring the list back and file it in the department here. Judge Stout, of the Franklin Circuit Court, held that the Commissioner has a right to get the list. The amount due Kentucky policyholders, who numbered several thousand, is not known, but it is estimated as high as $300,000.

SHALL CHINESE BOY GO TO WHITE OR COLORED SCHOOL

A confession that the Kentucky Attorney-General's staff cannot determine whether Superintendent H. O. Sloss, of the Covington Public School may send the Chinese boy who entered the public schools there, to the negro or white schools, may be given to State Superintendent Barksdale Hamlett in a few days. The question is entirely new in Kentucky. The constitution and the statutes deal only with the white and the negro schools. In the case of this Chinese boy an international question is involved.

When Assistant Attorney-General Logan was asked what would be his decision in the case, he replied: "I don't know. It's a question I don't know anything about, and what is the use of saying that the question will be solved when there is no law in this State bearing on the question. I have not given the question thorough study yet, but so far I have not been able to find any law or authority on the question."

He is of the opinion that the boy is entitled to go to school, and the only difficulty is where to place him. In the constitution the word "colored" when applied to school children in the statutes of this State means negro children.

NEW CHAPTER IN HISTORY OF MEDICINE

New and red-lettered pages were written into the history of medical science this year at London, according to Dr. John B. Murphy, back in Chicago from the sessions of the International Medical Congress at London.

Among the more important discoveries are the following:

Science can prove absolutely hereafter whether blood stains left on the scene of a crime are those of animals or human beings, a matter of guess heretofore.

While the chemical composition of human blood has been found distinctly different from any other known form of animate life, the blood of the chimpanzee more closely resembles that of man than does the blood of other animals, being the first material confirmation of Darwin's theory of evolution ever brought out by science.

Cross-breeding of mice subject to cancer has developed a species immune from the disease. This is the first time experimenters have ever developed immunity from the disease and offers medical history's first hope that humanity may be made immune from the scourge.

STOCK AND FARM NOTES

Danville Messenger: "Sheriff B. G. Fox has this week bought probably the largest bunch of mule colts ever taken over in one lot. He represented Joe Kindig, of Pennsylvania. T. E. Bonner, of Tennessee, and Col. R. G. Evans, of Danville. He bought 239 head at prices fairly good for this dry season. They were purchased in Boyle, Mercer and Anderson counties. Four loads have been sent to Kindig and one to Tennessee. Col. Evans has put eighty head on one of his Boyle county farms."

At Detroit, Friday, Peter Billiken, owned by W. A. Bacon, of Washington C. H., Ohio, formerly of this city, won a 2:11 trot in straight heats. The purse was valued at $1,000, and was the second he has won during the week.

YOUNG ENOUGH FOR CIRCUS

When a circus exhibited at Scottsville, Ky., recently one of the most interested spectators under the big tent was Uncle Thomas Goodman, aged 90, who had driven a distance of fifteen miles from his home at Fountain Run, in Monroe county. For more than half a century Mr. Goodman kept an inn and sustained a reputation for supplying the best meals to be found in Kentucky.

Gov. Thomas E. Bramblett, Gov. P. H. Leslie, Judge John M. Harlan and Gov. James B. McCreary were among the distinguished group of politicians who made their headquarters at Uncle Thomas' hostelry when in that section of the State, and out of hundreds who were entertained by him in the old days Gov. McCreary is said to be the sole survivor.

Mr. Goodman has voted for seventeen presidential candidates and is a Democrat.

GREAT FREE-FOR-ALL
RACE AT LEXINGTON

The result of the free-for-all pace at Hartford on Labor Day when Earl Jr. won in 2:03½ and 2:02½ after Braden Direct had taken the first heat in 2:02½ (the season's pacing record which has since been equalled by Directum I in a winning race at Syracuse, shows that the pacers of the highest class are just rounding into form and that from now on through the season the contests amongst them will be both bitter and thrilling.

But after all Lexington will be the real battle ground for the free-for-all horses, for there the best ones will get together for the first time to do battle for the Tennessee Stake, with a guaranteed value of $3,000. In this race James Butler's sensational young stallion, Directum I, 2:02½ on a half-mile track and 2:02½ on a mile track, will meet the flower of the free-for-all horses; also Frank Bogash, Jr., 2:02½, the Chamber of Commerce winner and a horse that is beaten until the last inch of the mile. In addition to these it is almost certain that Evelyn W., 2:00½ that has been on the sick list part of the season, but is being prepared for this race, Hal B., Jr., 2:03, Ess H. Kay, 2:00½, Gold Seal, 2:03, and Flower Direct 2:03½, will be among the starters. Such a field of pacers have never before been seen on the American continent and they will certainly draw a tremendous crowd to Lexington on October 8.

As the result of the crashing of a stone through the front window of an interurban car which left this city Saturday morning at 9 o'clock and was due in Lexington one hour later, Motorman J. R. Anderson was cut on the face in several places by flying particles of glass.

The car was going at a lively rate as it approached stop 31 and without warning the missile crashed through the window and rolled out through the screen door. The car was backed for a distance of nearly 200 yards with a view of identifying the miscreant, but he had disappeared.

Saturday night two cars on North-bound freight train No. 94 were derailed at Winchester, and as a result traffic was delayed for about two hours. The wrecking crew from this city was sent to the scene and the cars placed on the track.

THIRTY NEW MEMBERS ARE RECEIVED BY EPWORTH LEAGUE

The Epworth League of the Methodist Church held exercises at the church Sunday evening for the purpose of receiving into the league the thirty new members, a campaign for which was started several weeks ago. The church was beautifully decorated with the league colors, gold and white, the chancel of the church being adorned with golden rods and growing ferns. The choir loft was draped in gold and white material, making a pretty scene. Beautiful bouquets were placed in various places about the church.

The thirty members were called to the chancel and after a short address by the President, Mr. Dennis V. Snap took the pledge of the Epworth League, after which they were welcomed by a presentation by each of the officers of the various departments of the league. Mrs. Ames Grinnell, Jr., gave to each of the new members a pledge card of the League; Miss Elizabeth Mann, Second Vice President, pinned badges on each one; Mrs. Homer Shy presented each with a copy of the constitution and by-laws and Miss Lena Cooper presented each with a topic card of the League.

Visitors from Lexington were: Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Renaker, the former being District Secretary of the Epworth League of the Lexington District; Miss Mildred Mattingly, First Vice-President of the Lexington Epworth League; Miss Cord, Second Vice-President of the Lexington Epworth League.

COLUMBIA THEATRE TO-DAY

"Old Mammy's Secret Code," a massive military production, in which an old negro woman uses a prearranged code of wearing apparel on a clothes line to apprise the Confederates of the Union operations. Spectacular and awe-inspiring scene as a bridge is blown up with a huge charge of powder; thrilling rescue of the defeated Southern army by the cavalry, which hurls itself upon the advancing enemy, and the last of this great picture where the pathetic death of this old negro woman as she pays the penalty of her loyalty and condemned to death as a spy. This picture is in three reels and is one of the Broncho's best war pictures. You should see it by all means.

Mr. Percy Reed, the popular baritone singer, continues to please large audiences at the Columbia. His singing is distinctive and meets with the approval of the crowds.

AGED KENTUCKIAN

TRAVELS 20,000 MILES

V. N. Payne, an octogenarian of Dry Fork, near Glasgow, Ky., has just returned from a trip of 20,000 miles over the United States where he had been to visit his eight children, and notwithstanding the fact that his was his first ride on a train or the first visit he had made outside the State and but few times out of the county he traveled alone. After four months of almost constant travel he returned home hale and hearty, and says he feels twenty years younger than he did when he left. He talked entertainingly of the wonders of the great world over which he wandered for the first time.

NEW THEATER PLAN

Boston Woman Arranging to Erect Model Playhouse.

She Aims at Moral Growth—Reading Room and Lunch Stand in Rear of Stage Will Aid Comfort of the Performers.

Boston, Mass.—Mrs. Josephine Clement, probably the best-known woman theatrical manager in the country, has a scheme for a model theater which she hopes to build within a few months.

She has not yet decided where she will erect the theater, but she has abundant financial backing by persons who have been attracted by her success with the theater of which for several years she has been the manager.

It is to be a theater in which every seat will give an unobstructed view of the stage. The cost of a seat will be ten cents and the entertainments will be of a type that will have the approval of leaders in the "uplift movement" throughout the United States.

"It will be different from anything there is in the United States," said Mrs. Clement. "Only performances of the highest class will be given and the theater will be unique, as it will have light and air on all four sides."

"It will have dignified entrances, and everything inside will be arranged for the comfort of the patrons and the actors."

"I believe that actors who have brains enough to amuse audiences are entitled to as much as the patrons, and that is why there will be as good an entrance in the back for them as there is for the public in front."

"Actors who are satisfied with their surroundings will co-operate with the management, and that means success for the theater."

The Bijou theater, under the direction of Mrs. Clement, has made a feature of moving pictures, and it is her intention to give pictures in her new theater, but they will be of a type different from any now in general use. There will be nothing in them to offend, and they will be entirely free from the weird features which have brought forth criticisms from clergymen all over the world.

Mrs. Clement's idea is to have pictures that will educate and aid in uplift work.

"I am going to show pictures that will tend towards moral and intellectual development," said Mrs. Clement. "I intend to give one long film, a short one of a humorous nature, two musical numbers and two solos."

"My scheme is to have a theater that every one will enjoy attending, and one in which a person will see and hear for ten cents what now costs not less than half a dollar. Moving pictures so far have been used to amuse, to startle the imagination and to reproduce many things which the public would be better without having seen. These pictures will have no place in my theater."

Mrs. Clement will have the co-operation of the Harvard Dramatic society, as she had in her work at the Bijou, and of many clergymen and city officials who have been foremost in the agitation against the moving picture shows that are given in many theaters.

Back of the stage will be a reading-room in which the actors can amuse themselves between their acts. There will be a luncheon, where they will be able to purchase meals at cost.

Young men and women will be given an opportunity to begin at the bottom and work to the top.

"I have always taken an interest in young persons," said Mrs. Clement, "and every day am on the lookout for promising young men and women. I have a theory that most of us can do something pretty well and have proven it since I went into the theatrical business."

"A young woman came to me and said that she was a good dancer. I gave her a trial and she was an utter failure. She told me she could play the piano. I tried her at this and she was a success."

"I had another girl tell me she could sing. She couldn't, but I found that she was a splendid stenographer. I can find good actors and singers as I have found stenographers and piano players, and when the model theater has been in operation a while it will have proven that I am right."

"We will win in a short time, I am confident, the good will and support of those who see now in moving pictures only things to condemn."

BURY ALL BOTTLES IN WOODS

Growing Belief That Sun's Rays Passing Through Glass Starts Some of the Fires.

Centralla, Wash.—Beer and whisky bottles, carelessly thrown to the ground in timbered areas, are apt to cause forest fires, according to the opinion of E. W. Ferris, state fire warden.

Mr. Ferris said that fire wardens had been instructed to bury all bottles they saw in order that they may not act as a concentrating medium for the sun's rays and start fires in dry leaves and moss.

"I have had many reports of fires that undoubtedly started in this manner," said Mr. Ferris, "and I do not doubt in the least the opinion that there is danger from this source. It sounds odd, but undoubtedly it is true."

MILLION DOLLAR FASHION SHOW

Will Be Held In Cincinnati From September 29th To October 4th

WILL BE FREE TO EVERYBODY

Co-operative Display of All That is Newest, Best, Smartest and Most Attractive in Fall and Winter Fashions—Prizes For Decorators.

Cincinnati Fashion Week—September 29 to October 4—those are the dates of a week that will be of intense interest and delight and profit to everyone who patronizes a retail store—and that means everybody.

For the first time in the retail history of the Queen City the merchants have come together with the idea of making a co-operative display of that which is newest, best, smartest and most authoritative in the products that retailers carry.

Think of seeing all at once the world's products in every retail line. Heretofore one has had to be content with seeing one Fall opening, or two or three perhaps, but now one can see every store beautified with the newest creations in the lines every store carries. It will be a delightful journey from one store to another, throughout the entire retail district, seeing what the world's best makers and the world's greatest markets and the world's greatest designers have perfected.

The official colors, purple and canary, will drape scores of mercantile houses, augmented and further adorned with the individual decorations each house will use. Prizes amounting to $200 have been hung up for the window trimmers and the exterior decorators, but more than the money awards is stimulating these artists to the limit of their ingenuity and artistry. Everyone wants to win first prize, and the result will be that during Fashion Week the Queen City will be queenly, indeed, in colorful garb.

Fashion Week was not designed to sell goods—the primary idea is to impress everyone within 150 miles of Cincinnati that the Queen City is the logical center for buying merchandise that is correct in every way. Cincinnati merchants search the world for the best there is; one need not go to New York nor Chicago nor anywhere else to get the very newest, cleverest, best and latest in merchandise. It is in Cincinnati stores—and Fashion Week will prove it. Foreign buyers have received cablegrams ordering them to secure the latest things in European styles; every Eastern market has been combed by Cincinnati merchants in an extra effort to obtain the most recent things in every line of merchandise.

The display during Fashion Week will be thoroughly comprehensive. There will be on exhibition apparel of every sort; there will be footwear of every kind—dress footwear, street footwear and foot coverings for every kind of sport. There will be millinery, furniture, machinery, sporting goods, cloths—merchandise without end. Just think of anything that any retail store carries and then know that you can see it at its very best in Cincinnati during Fashion Week.

The liveliest, biggest, best merchants in Cincinnati are giving of their time, money and brains to make Fashion Week an epoch in the retail world. This will profit the merchants, of course—that's what merchants are in business for, but it will profit the shopper just as much, for it is well, isn't it, to get the newest and the best for the shopper's money?

Make your plans to come to Cincinnati during Fashion Week. Fix the dates in your mind; don't let anything keep you away. Even if one did not purchase a single article, the display will be as educative as delightful, for you have never seen the Queen City as handsome as it will be during this gala week.

The Fashion Week does not interfere in any way with the usual Fall openings of the retail merchants. These are being held or will be held as before, but Fashion Week will be the time when every merchant will make special efforts to make a display of new things such as he has never made before.

Fashion Week is for everybody—makes no difference what merchandise you are interested in, you may be sure of seeing the best and newest that the world affords when you come to Cincinnati during Fashion Week.

Just to remind you again—September 29 to October 4.

ICE MENACE TO STEFANSSON

Polar Expedition Meets With Accident
—Members of Crew Say Ship
Has Hole in It.

Nome, Alaska.—The old whaler Karluk, which was taking the Vihjalmur Stefansson Canadian polar exploration expedition into the arctic, met with a serious accident in the ice off Point Barrow, the northernmost point of Alaska, and may have to unload her cargo, according to word received here from the revenue cutter Bear. The extent of the damage to the Karluk is not known, but it is reported that a large hole was stove in her hull. The Stefansson expedition found unusual ice conditions at Barrow. The Karluk was caught between the ice floes and is drifting with the ice. Aird Henton, a member of the crew, quit at Barrow and told officers of the revenue cutter of the Karluk's plight. The Stefansson expedition on the Karluk as the main ship, and the auxiliary gasoline boats Mary Sachs and Alaska, left Port Clarence, Alaska, 90 miles north of Nome, late in July. Aboard the Karluk, of which Captain Robert Bartlett, who commanded Peary's polar ship Roosevelt, is master, are Stefansson, commander-in-chief of the expedition, and eight of the fourteen scientists who make up his party. The other scientists were divided between the Mary Sachs, of which Kenneth Chipman, the Canadian geologist, was placed in command, and the Alaska, in command of Dr. R. M. Anderson, the American biologist.

TURKS FORCED INTO BAPTISM

Bulgarians Christianize Village in Macedonia After Taking Formal Possession of Place.

Athens.—The story of a curious episode has reached here from the Greek headquarters, which are stationed in a village near Djumaya. It appears that the village was originally Turkish, but when the Bulgarians arrived here last October they determined to Christianize it at once.

They demolished the minaret on the mosque and turned the mosque itself into a church, with a huge timber cross in place of the minaret. They then proceeded to forcibly baptize the inhabitants—men, women and children. A pile of gaudy baptismal certificates was procured from a local printer and placed at the door of the church, where the baptismal line formed every day. A candidate was forced to take a certificate and passed with it to the font, where a priest and clerk stood ready, respectively, to baptize and to register the baptism.

When the Greeks arrived last month they were in a quandary. They did not like to tear down the cross. Neither did their priests like to entertain and administer to so many Turks made Christians by force. The baptisms were, however, declared to be void, and the Turkish priests were allowed to unbaptize their flock by giving them Turkish names. One of these priests or hodja added a touch of humor to the situation by saying that after all he was not certain whether his name was Ali Hassan or George Ferdinand.

WALES TO WED THE DUCHESS

Names of Two Young Members of Royal Family Again Being Spoken Together.

London.—There is scarcely a prince in Europe whose name has not been associated with the prince of Wales as his future bride at one time or another. There has recently been some serious conversation over his choice of a wife. His selection of a future queen of England is, of course, a momentous one, but there is a disposition on the part of the king to allow his son a free choice as far as possible. The latest name suggested is one that would be in every way suitable—the Grand Duchess Olga, of Russia. She is a very beautiful girl, with the Madonna-like beauty of her mother, but without her extreme reserve and shyness.

She is bright, well-informed, and during her school days was very receptive. Should such a romance be brought about, it would be the case of the grandchildren of two sisters marrying, as Empress Mary of Russia, the grand duchess's grandmother, is the sister of Queen Alexandra, the grandmother of the prince of Wales.

Dies of Disease He Dreaded.
Boston, Mass.—Typhoid pneumonia has claimed Sergeant Arthur C. Mills of the Charlestown cadets, who lived in fear of the disease, and three times submitted to inoculation of a serum which was supposed to have made him absolutely immune.

Truck Replaced Three Teams

In eleven months this three-ton KisselKar Truck covered in actual service 4,760 miles at a fuel cost of $1.08 per day. Manned by a driver and one helper, it replaced three teams of horses. The average daily burden was 37 17.20ths, not carried an average load of four tons—one ton overload—but in the entire period named, was laid up only two and one-half hours for repairs.

"We can recommend the KisselKar Truck and assure that it lives up to its guarantee," writes Thomas E. Fleischer, manager of the Sheboygan Lime Works. Two and one-half hours for repairs, carrying over 37 tons per day is a record worthy of notice. KisselKar Trucks cost little to maintain and are economical to operate because the problem is solved in KisselKar construction.

Note these striking KisselKar features—Simple engine—easy to operate—reserve power—excess capacity—differential lock preventing one drive wheel absorbing all the power on slippery places, and stalling the truck—four speed transmitters geared up—fourth speed permitting high speed when desired without racing engine; 15 to 20 per cent. lower fuel consumption than average trucks—light spring suspension for power plant, heavy spring suspension for load—gauge that weighs load—greatest accessibility—easy control—larger brake drums, and extra powerful brakes—special bodies designed to meet every need.

KisselKar Trucks

1500 lbs.-1-2-3-4 and 5 Tons

In the range of capacity, 1500 lbs. to 5 tons, you can find just the type that fills your requirements—and with the KisselKar Truck goes the KisselKar Service, which is the manufacturer's guarantee of satisfaction.

KisselKar Service means taking off your hands all of the mechanical details. A special service building is maintained in this city for the benefit of KisselKar owners. The KisselKar service is a broad and comprehensive arrangement between manufacturer and owners that cares for the car, maintains efficiency, retards depreciation and minimizes upkeep. This service is a valuable consideration in the purchase of a power wagon. Investigate it.

Ask us to analyze your present horse haulage as compared to motor haulage. The result will be interesting.

"THE SOUL KISS."

"The Soul Kiss" is distinguished not only by the unique idea of the search for a kiss that comes from the soul and all the clever comedy situations of the book, written by Harry B. Smith, but by a score of delightful, tuneful and catchy songs and dances interspersed throughout. The music, which was written by Maurice Levi, is full in harmony with the lines of the story, and has that appeal that throws music-lovers into ecstasies.

The striking characteristics of "The Soul Kiss" is its harmony, expressiveness, tunefulness and laugh-provoking situations. The music follows the idea of the story—now soft and low, now swelling into joyousness and thrills of the intensest kind, now shading off into dreamy melody, then following the love sentiment

It is one thing to make soda crackers that are occasionally good.

It is quite another thing to make them so that they are always better than all other soda crackers, always of unvarying goodness.

The name "Uneeda"—stamped on every biscuit—means that if a million packages of Uneeda Biscuit were placed before you, you could choose any one of them, confident that every soda cracker in that package would be as good as the best Uneeda Biscuit ever baked. Five cents.

with tender harmony, and then breaking out into vigorous expression of the joy of life, realizing the elaborate setting, the color and beauty of the forty participants, then into the climaxed time of the dance, when the gayly costumed galaxy of some forty dancers swing and whirl into that wild fantasy of the mountain dance, led by Orpha Hewes, direct from the Crystal Palace, London, who was the sensation of Europe's music-halls last season, and all these changes are one blended whole of laughter, emotions, thrills and delightful sensations, thus making "The Soul Kiss" far and away the baneramusical attraction of the past decade.

The feminine contingent is composed of attractive young singers and dancers; not the least attractive portion of this production are the "Squabs," who are nearly all of one size, trim of form and pretty of face. At the Paris Grand, Saturday, Sept. 27.

—As a special attraction for the Cincinnati's Merchant's big fashion week, the B. F. Keith management has arranged a fashion plate vaudeville show which will show entirely new styles of the B. F. Keith standard of modern vaudeville. Visitors to Cincinnati during fashion week will see a remarkable array of vaudeville features the equal of which has never before been seen in Cincinnati. The big headline attraction will be Jesse Lasky's Red Heads, with a superb cast of pretty people, headed by James B. Carson. This is the feature act that made such a decided hit with President Wilson at B. F. Keith's Washington Theatre on September 19th. There are twenty beauties selected from the Broadway success for their physical charms. Mr. Lasky has the best production of his career as a theatrical producer and his red heads will no doubt prove as popular to the people of Cincinnati as they did to President Wilson. For fashion week these beauties will wear a varied assortment and gorgeous costumes from the largest modiste shops of Paris and Fifth avenue. The millinery display will be very ultra. The act will have plenty of lively comedy and catchy easy-to-whistle music that is conspicuous in all Lasky's productions.

Then there will be Homer Miles & Co., presenting a comedy sketch "On the Edge of Things." This is an act that treats with life in the tenements. Falis and the Barry Girls will present knock-out success "The Boy Next Door." Cleo Gascoigne, the doll prima donna from England and the smallest performer with the biggest voice in vaudeville, will make her first appearance in America. Little Cleo has a most magnetic personality and has wonderful technique in singing, which should make her an instantaneous success. The Field Bros., modern exponents of singing and dancing, will make things lively in their act, and Harry DeCoe, daredevil with the tables and chairs, will thrill the audience twice a day. Herbert Dyer & Co. are sure to get many laughs with their comedy pantomimic act, and these are only a few of the big features to be seen at B. F. Keith's big fashion week show.

—Local theatregoers are looking forward with keen interest to the coming of "Broadway Jones" to the Lexington Opera House Friday evening as Mr. Cohen's new play created a veritable sensation in New York, where it had a run of an entire season, playing to capacity business, and is conceded to be the greatest comedy this brilliant young author has yet produced.

Mr. Cohen's latest effort is a comedy devoid of slang, as that vernacular is popularly defined, but it nevertheless contains enough smart and breezy chatter to keep the four acts in which it is written whizzing along at a pace that keeps astride the mark maintained on all Mr. Cohen's former efforts. At the opening of the play "Broadway" Jones is arriving home very late in a condition that could not be arrived at very early. Though he is popularly supposed to be very rich, his continued attempts to "burn up Broadway" have cut big inroads into his fortune, until at the beginning of the play he is penniless and heavily in debt. In order to rid himself of his numerous obligations he engages himself as a rich widow's old enough to be his mother, and though his friends try to break off the engagement they do not succeed.

Then Jones, the hero, gets word that his uncle has died and left him a big property in the shape of a chewing Gum Factory in Jonesville, Conn., and here the real action of the play begins. In the scenes that follow the young fellow is brought around from a desire to sell his factory and continue his wild career, to an earnest determination to keep it for the good of the little Connecticut town of which it is the sole industry, and "Broadway" Jones, money-burner, man-about-town, becomes Jackson Jones, factory owner and a respected man in his community.

The cast includes: Thos. V. Emory, Curtis Benton, Geo. B. Miller, Maurice M. Fisher, Mrs. Chas. Willard, Miss Olive Artzell, Miss Morrissey and Miss Indle Whitesides.
